

Dear Clients and Friends:

During the evolving Coronavirus situation, we at Montalbano, Condon & Frank want you to know that we are committed to the health and well-being of our staff, clients and friends. We are following the recommendations of the public health care organizations and our state and local governments to minimize the risk of transmission.

While our office remains open it will be staffed on a limited basis. However, all of our Attorneys will continue to be available to assist you and will be reachable by telephone, voicemail and/or email. All inquiries, emails and voicemails will be answered promptly.

Thank you for your understanding. Stay healthy and be safe.

Sincerely,
Attorneys & Staff
Montalbano, Condon & Frank, P.C.
